Given the opportunity of artistic freedom of choice, where do you begin? This experience provides you the opportunity to explore many different approaches and materials to making sculpture based on your own thoughts and artistic ideals. Issues of how to incorporate concept with image and what role materials and proximity play in your process of making art will be emphasized. With this freedom comes responsibility and it is up to you to make sure you are prepared for class.

COURSE DESCRIPTION & OBJECTIVES
Explores construction techniques and tools to create sculpture, introducing more advanced techniques and information. Pursue individual goals, selecting materials and types of artistic expressions that best suit each individual and creative situation.

Students will document ideas and sketches of their work, proper equipment procedures and advanced techniques of demonstrated equipment in their sketchbooks
Students will develop experimental artwork from individual goals, interest, materials and techniques
Students will explain the concepts & choices related to their artwork during critique
Students will evaluate and offer criticism of the artwork of other students during critique
Students will digitally document their artwork utilizing online structure that illustrates the work produced

GRADING
Each project must be completed on time. Critiques begin promptly at the beginning of class. Your work will be assessed the day of the critique. If the work is unfinished, you must present it as it is and it will be graded at that point. All students are required to keep a sketchbook that should contain research notes and research sources, project ideas, drawings, observations, etc. Your sketchbook should be with you at every class so we can discuss your problems from a visual base.

The letter grade I give will be based on:
• creativity - openness to experimentation with materials and thought processes
• concept - the content and context of your work
• craftsmanship - attention to details, consistency and structural integrity
• execution - coming to class prepared to work and at least 6 hours a week outside of class (51mpd)
• presentation - how the work is presented for the critique and what you have to say about it
• documentation – ability to follow documentation guidelines on the back of this syllabus

Your final grade will be an average of all artwork, class participation, verbal participation during the critiques, attendance and your sketchbook information. You are expected to spend a considerable amount of time working outside of class if want to make excellent art.

ATTENDANCE
You are expected to be on time, ready to work when class meets. You are allowed 3 excused absences for this semester. More than 3 excused absences will lower your final grade by a half a letter grade for each day missed. Your sketchbook should be with you at every class. You must be present during all critiques, demonstrations and presentations.

STUDIO ACTIVITY
Each student is responsible to come to class ready to work on his/her own project. Individual work areas and shop cleaning is mandatory in order to keep a safe and positive working environment. If you are unsure about the operation of equipment contact me, a sculpture major or sculpture graduate before using it.

SAFETY

Eye protection must be worn when working in the shops at all times. Leather boots and natural fiber pants are required for the metal shop work area. Do not wear frayed clothing in metal shop (the sparks will ignite your frayed clothing). Avoid loose clothing. Open toed shoes are not allowed in all shops. Long hair must be tied back when using all equipment. Wear ear protection using equipment.
